Isa Farrington-Nichols

Biography

- Founder/CEO of Jireh-Shalom Foundation
- Truth & Reconciliation Expert
- Author of Genesis: The Bullet Was Meant For Me, DC Sniper Story Untold

Ms. Isa Farrington-Nichols is the Founder and CEO of the Jireh-Shalom Foundation, dedicated to victims of domestic abuse and domestic violence. Jireh-Shalom provides resources for provision and peace for children, families, and communities in domestic abuse and violence prevention and intervention. She has recently closed a seven year chapter on abuse and violence in her life with the execution of DC Sniper John Muhammad in Virginia.

Ms. Nichols, Author of Genesis: The Bullet Was Meant for Me, The DC Sniper Story Untold, is the first targeted victim of Muhammad and his teenage accomplice Lee Boyd Malvo, her niece, Keenya Cook – also victim of domestic violence – was shot and murdered in a case of mistaken identity. Ms. Nichols has written about this tragedy and tells her story in Genesis as a mission to make the public aware that the DC Sniper's first notorious tragedy started at her home in Tacoma, Washington with domestic abuse.

Isa Farrington-Nichols has brought her message of Truth and Reconciliation through Traumatic Experiences to professional associations, Universities, schools, churches, and conferences. Her story has appeared in the New York Times, Chicago Times, Seattle Times, the Seattle Medium, Howard University Newspaper, The Black College View, and AOL News. She has also been interviewed by the following: King5 Television, KOMO TV, KIRO7/CBS6 (Washington, D.C.), NBC Universal, the FOX News morning show, Fox & Friends, A&E Network, The Discovery Channel, B.E.T., and CNN's Larry King Live.

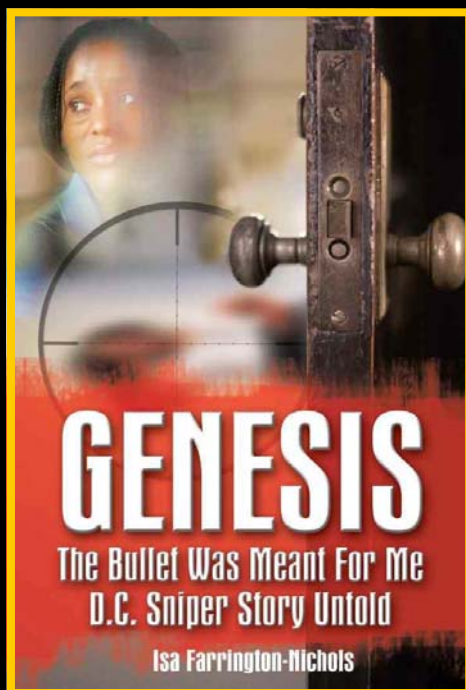

Ms Farrington-Nichols is the Executive Director of the award winning Maxine Mimms Academies; providing education for suspended and expelled students returning to public school, a cause she championed after her traumatized 15-year-old daughter was suspended because she could not handle the pain from the trauma after the tragedy in their home.

Isa lives in Tacoma, Washington, and has two daughters, a son-in-law, and three granddaughters.

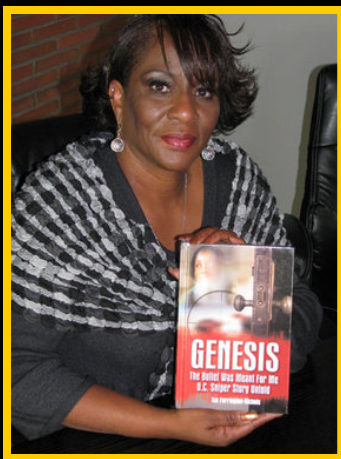

FEATURED TOPICS TO CHOOSE FROM:

GENESIS:

The Bullet Was Meant For Me, DC Sniper Story Untold

I share my story about the connected lives of three African-American women. Mildred Muhammad, Keenya Cook and I were all sufferers of Domestic Abuse and Domestic Violence. I share my story of the relationship I had with convicted murderer John Allen Muhammad, Mildred Muhammad and her family. I share my story about Keenya Cook, a young single mother whose decision to leave her emotionally, physically abusive boyfriend to find safety, and healing for herself and her infant child. I share my story of emotional, psychological abuse during a 20 year marriage; holding on to a union that was shattered with many cracks. My story of brokenness from the day my marriage ended to the faith, healing, and triumphant road to restoration.

“This book is full of wisdom and love. Don’t miss this book!”
